

Hull Collaborative Trust - Business and Pecuniary Interest Declaration Form 2023-24

Name: Norron Greenfield

Role: 1) Member 2) Trustee 3) Member of Staff (with financial responsibilities)
(please delete those above that do NOT apply)

Members, Trustees and Members of Staff with financial responsibilities within Hull Collaborative Academy Trust should be aware that they are required by law to disclose any business or pecuniary interests that may affect their role, influence the information they give or influence the decisions they make. The personal or business interest may be direct or indirect, actual or perceived. An interest can also relate to a disadvantage as well as an advantage. This may include:

- directorships, partnerships, substantial share holdings and employments with businesses that provide goods or services to the Trust; and
- trusteeships and governorships, including those at other educational institutions and charities irrespective of whether there is a trading relationship with the Trust.

This should also include any business or pecuniary interests of connected parties, such as a close member of the family, member of the same household or close friend, who may be expected to influence, or be influenced by, you. This includes, but is not limited to, a child, parent, sibling, grandparent, spouse or civil partner.

Please use the space overleaf to declare any such business or pecuniary interests and sign and date the Declaration. If in doubt, please declare the interest. Where you have no interests to declare, please write 'None' and sign and date the Declaration.

Should your circumstances change in the future, you must undertake to declare any business or pecuniary interests as appropriate in accordance with regulations in force at the time. In the event of your circumstances changing and a new interest having to be declared, a new form should be completed.

The declaration of any pecuniary interests is a standing agenda item at every Trust governance meeting and should be used for the declaration of any interest that may relate to a particular agenda item.

Please note that the information you provide will form part of the Register of interests for the Trust and, as required, will be published on the Trust's website.

Please specify whether the interest is yours or a relation s/friend's AND, if another's, their full name and relationship to you.
